

Allowing the Sinclair Broadcast Group to air its anti-Kerry political propaganda without providing equal time to John Kerry and/or his supporters is just wrong. I would feel just as outraged if a media company favoring Kerry presented Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 911 just before the election.